1. What is Habitat for Humanity?
 - a. Habitat (HFH) is a nonprofit organization that serves as both a builder and a bank. We build and then finance mortgages on new construction and rehabs. Homeowners then pay their mortgages over 25 years, which literally pays it forward for us to be able to serve more homeowners in the community.
2. Is it a free house?
 - a. No. Habitat homeowners must qualify for a mortgage. There is a full loan application packet that must be completed and screened, which includes running credit, and submitting banking, financial, and other paperwork.
3. How much does a Habitat house cost?
 - a. There is a down payment that will cover escrow and fees, usually $2,500 payable prior to closing. The monthly mortgage ranges between $800-$950 per month with a 0% interest loan. Homebuyers also contribute 250 sweat equity hours towards their down payment.
4. How much time does the program take?
 - a. Typical HFH homebuyers will complete their sweat equity and education program in one to one and a half years. In this time, they will complete education courses and work on construction sites. The time commitment is the equivalent of a part time job. No construction experience is required.
5. Where would I live?
 - a. In 2026, we will be building 3 homes on Riddle Street in Jeffersonville. If you wish to apply for Habitat, but you are not interested in living in this location, please wait to apply in another application period.
6. What kind of finances do I need to qualify?
 - a. Qualified homebuyers must: have income within the guidelines, decent credit, steady income for at least one year (less than 4 weeks gap in any employment changes), pay rent on time, any bankruptcies discharged at least 18 months prior, and be financially prepared for homeownership. If you are not yet mortgage-ready, consider financial counseling to get your finances ready for the next application period.

Application Steps:

1. Print the application, fill out entirely and be sure to sign it on the last page.
2. Gather the documents listed below and make copies of all of them. Your application will not be screened until the application is complete and all documents are submitted.

4. We will be in contact with you via email or letter every 30 days, and please be patient with us as we are a small team of volunteers and staff.

For example, the lender may use the Unmarried Addendum when the borrower resides in a state that recognizes civil unions, domestic partnerships or registered reciprocal beneficiary relationships or when the property is located in such a state. "State" means any state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act Notice

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at Midwest Region for the Federal Trade Commission. Or at Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

You need not disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we may request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable mortgage amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources.

Accordingly, if you receive income from these sources and do not provide this information with your application, your application will be considered incomplete, and we will be unable to invite you to participate in the Habitat program.
